Dedication

In gratitude for the years of wise counsel, loyal service, and untiring efforts rendered us, the class of 1951, we humbly dedicate this, our yearbook, to our sponsor, Mrs. Lyrace Fontaine.

President's Address

For the past four years we, the Class of 1951, have been striving toward the objective which is now at hand. Hard work and cooperation on the part of students, teachers, and parents have brought us to this event.

The time has seemed all too short; and now we stand where so many others have stood, looking back over our high school days.

We do this with both anticipation and sadness—sadness because they have been happy years in which we have come to know each other truly and now they are all over; and anticipation because we feel that we are now facing other adventures which will challenge us anew.

We face the future with courage, feeling that the foundation we have gained here through our work and play together and the faith in our ideals will aid us in attaining whatever goals we may set.

GARY FAY

Class Song

(Tune of "Till We Meet Again")

We are leaving dear old Proctor High;
All the joys we've known flew swiftly by.
Teachers, classmates, friends so true,
Four long years we've shared with you;
But now we're leaving all of you behind,
Left with memories to keep in mind;
As sadly now our school days end,
Till we meet again.

ELSIE MONAHAN

CLASS MOTTO: "Wisdom Is The Only Liberty."

CLASS COLORS: Maroon and White

CLASS FLOWER: White Rose

Farewell!!

After four brief, sweet years
We now stand 'neath the pines;
And, our eyes stung by tears,
We must bid you farewell.

Farewell, joys and sorrows,
For we're leaving you now,
Off to face new tomorrows
And to toil for mankind.

Yet we'll think with a sigh,
As we course through the years,
Of our school, Proctor High,
Where we've spent such glad days.

Class History

FRESHMAN YEAR

In September, 1947, an unusually talented group of freshmen entered P. H. S.

Upon our arrival we were greeted by three new teachers. Miss Shanney took Miss Hall's place in the home economics room; Miss Kemp replaced Miss Edgett in girls' physical education, and Mr. Holbrook took Mr. Hirtle's place in manual training.

For our first year the following were elected as class officers: president, Myrtle Skjetne; vice-president, Marshall Fay; secretary, Patricia May; treasurer, Raymond Maloney; and athletic association representative, Eli Mazut. We chose Miss Kemp as our sponsor.

The candidates elected for the re-established Student Council were Myrtle Skjetne, secretary, and Raymond Maloney, representative.

The long-anticipated freshman reception soon rolled around. The girls had to wear long underwear, aprons, skirts, gypsy earrings, sun glasses, a stocking hat and men's boots worn on the wrong feet. The boys were more handsome than ever in skirts and sweaters, one high heeled shoe and one slipper, a sock on one foot and a silk stocking on the other. The fun didn't really begin until that evening, for the boys were dressed like bathing beauties. They wore two-piece bathing suits, leg make-up, picture hats and huarachos. The girls wore football uniforms, men's shoes on the wrong feet and a football helmet with a pigtail sticking up. Roger Nelson was chosen "Miss Marble Block" of 1947.

The four freshman boys who helped make up the football team were Marshall Fay, Eli Mazut, Raymond Maloney, and Lennart Nelson. Eli Mazut was the only boy who received his letter for football. The following played on the J. V. basketball team: Raymond Maloney, Marshall Fay, Eli Mazut, Frank Mazut, and Lloyd Anderson. There were only three who went out for baseball—Raymond Maloney, Marshall Fay, and Lennart Nelson.

In the one act-play contest we showed such talent that we captured third prize. Our play, "Junior's Mustache," was directed by Miss McGillicuddy. Members of the cast were Raymond Maloney, Louise Olney, Marshall Fay,

Eli Mazut, Karen Oscarson, Janice Casey and Marilyn Nelson. Though we did win only third prize, Marilyn Nelson, as the old-maid school teacher, received hearty applause when she sailed off the stage. Eli Mazut also made quite a hit.

Louise Olney was the only freshman to attend the Music Festival in Burlington in May.

In June, we had a class picnic at Goodwin's on Lake Bomoseen. We all had a good time.

So ended our freshman year!

SOPHOMORE YEAR

In September, 1948, we returned to Proctor High to start our second year of high school. We now had one year behind us, and we watched the green freshmen struggling to gain a foothold in the new life.

It took some time to get to know all the new teachers: Mr. Williams, who had replaced Mr. Vassar in the history department; Mr. O'Horo, who replaced Mr. Holbrook in the shop; Miss Towne, who took over Miss McGillicuddy's position in junior high school; Miss Gay, the new mathematics teacher and Miss Rowe's successor; and Mr. Brokaw, replacing Coach Desrosiers in the physical education department. Miss Erway had succeeded Miss Wingett in music.

At our first class meeting, we elected our class officers for the year: Gary Fay, president; Myrtle Skjetne, vice-president; Patricia May, secretary; and Marilyn Nelson, treasurer. Miss Kemp was again our sponsor. That year Marshall Fay represented us in the Athletic Association and Janice Casey was on the assembly committee. Myrtle Skjetne was elected treasurer and Gary Fay, representative to the Student Council.

Soon we were decorating for freshman reception and, unlike the previous year, were able to enjoy watching the initiation.

Ray Maloney, Clarence Capman, Gary Fay, Marshall Fay, Lenny Nelson, Roger Nelson, Eli Mazut, Frank Mazut, and Lloyd Anderson represented our class in sports that year.

After a play-off against Bristol at Rutland High School, our basketball team entered the "C" tournament at Burlington. We won the first game against Wallingford and the second game against Milton, gaining a position in the finals. There we lost a close game to North Bennington and received the runner-up trophy.

In the One-Act Play Contest we presented the comedy, "Scrambled Eggs." Miss Towne directed. In the cast were: Marilyn Nelson, Janice Casey, Louise Olney, Lenny Nelson, Ray Maloney, Clarence Capman and a bowl of talented gold fish. Because of the latter our class again won—third prize!

In April we sponsored the annual Sophomore Hop which was a social success and almost made some money.

Before we could realize it, June had arrived; half of our high school career had come to a close. Our class picnic, held at Lake Dunmore, was not a howling success.

JUNIOR YEAR

September, 1949! Upperclassmen at last!

As we entered our junior year, we found three new members on the faculty. Mr. Silvester took Mr. Parry's place as principal; Mrs. Ploof replaced Miss Shanney in the home economics department, and Miss Guidotti replaced Miss Erway as music supervisor.

At the first class meeting of the year we elected the following officers; Gary Fay, president; Janice Casey, vice-president; Patricia May, secretary; and Marilyn Nelson, treasurer. Mrs. Fontaine was chosen class sponsor. Eli Mazut became our representative to the Athletic Association; and Karen Oscarson, to the assembly committee.

Myrtle Skjetne, Patricia May, and Gary Fay represented the class on the Student Council. Myrtle was elected the vice-president.

The first junior-sponsored social event of the year was the annual Sadie Hawkins Day dance. Almost life-size sketches of L'il Abner, Daisy Mae, and other Dogpatch characters, drawn by Nina Giancola, decorated the walls of the gym. As usual when the girls escort the boys, the dance was a success both socially and financially.

In an all-out effort to improve our treasury, which was suffering from anemia, we sold Christmas cards, stationery, and wreaths before the holidays. By New Year's our bank balance looked healthier.

On the seventeenth of March we sponsored the One-Act Play Contest. After having won third place for two years, we were overjoyed to win first prize with the comedy, "Married at Sunrise," directed by Mrs. Fontaine. The members of the cast were Janice Casey, Louise Olney, Marilyn Nelson, Gary Fay, Clarence Capman, and Karen Oscarson.

The play was then presented in the District Contest in Middlebury. When the judge announced Proctor as the winner, we screamed for joy. On April first the cast went to the State Drama Festival in Montpelier; and although we didn't receive one of the two prizes, we were praised by the judge at the critique.

One of our class, Karen Oscarson, won third prize at the prize speaking contest with her humorous impersonation of a talkative German mother in a railroad station.

Soon after this the now almost semi-pro actors and actresses went on the road. Traveling to Beeman Academy in New Haven, the class presented "Married at Sunrise" and "A Night in the Country." Karen repeated her prize speaking role, and Tommy Yakunovich played the accordion.

In May the same program plus vaudeville acts and production numbers was presented as a highly successful Variety Show. The boys of the band of Bulkeley High School, New London, Connecticut, were our guests at the show, dance, and midnight supper. The girls, wearing costumes of the roaring twenties, appeared in the number, "Dearie," and brought down the house.

Raymond Maloney, Marshall Fay, Lennart and Roger Nelson, Frank and Eli Mazut, and Lloyd Anderson represented us in sports during this year. Our basketball team went to the "C" tournament in Barre, but was defeated by Wallingford in the first game.

Louise Olney and Clarence Capman went to the Music Festival in May.

As the year drew toward a close, Gary and Marshall Fay were chosen delegates to Boys' State, and Louise Olney, to Girls' State. Louise was honored by being chosen first delegate from Girls' State to Girls' Nation, held in Washington at the end of July.

On June fourteenth, as a tribute to the seniors, we held our Junior Prom. It was a "Stardust Dance," and decorations of midnight blue and silver accentuated the theme.

Dolores Ward and Raymond Maloney were marshals for graduation.

Our year's activities closed with decoration for graduation, the stage banked with peonies, and a picnic, following last assembly. The picnic was held at Lake St. Catherine and included lunch, supper, boating, swimming, and dancing at the pavilion until midnight.

So, exhausted by an active year, we welcomed our summer vacation.

SENIOR YEAR

We entered the school year in September, 1951, with two changes in faculty. Miss Dewing took Miss Kemp's place in girls' physical education. Mr. Rogerson replaced Mr. Call in the science department. Later Coach Brokaw was called into the service and was replaced by Coach Wells. Miss Hackett was taken ill and was replaced by Mr. Lepore who was later replaced by Mrs. Murphy. In February Miss Gay became Mrs. Johnson to everybody's confusion, for now we had three Johnsons on the faculty.

At our first class meeting we elected Gary Fay as president, Dolores Ward as vice-president, Marilyn Nelson as treasurer, and Patricia May as secretary. Mrs. Fontaine was again chosen our class sponsor. Lenny Nelson was chosen to serve in the Athletic Association; and Louise Olney, on the assembly committee.

Ray Maloney was elected president of the Student Council; and Marshall Fay and Louise Olney, representatives.

As soon as school was once under way, the long-awaited freshman reception rolled around. The "freshies" wore elaborate costumes both day and evening. In an attempt to make Freshman Reception more entertaining, we chose as a central theme, the circus, and presented such acts as a trained seal, fortune teller, and the fat lady. The audience seemed to enjoy it, and we suggest that other classes follow suit.

Our senior play, "Our Miss Brooks," was presented before Thanksgiving. Every member of the class took part. Mrs. Fontaine did a fine job of directing.

Money-making schemes during the year included a booth at the bazaar, the sale of Christmas and everyday cards and Christmas tree lights, a food sale, collecting waste paper, selling at basketball games, some Saturday night dances, and a Senior Ball, held during the Christmas vacation. The hall was decorated in red and green; and in an effort to carry out our scheme, we wrote even the financial results in bright red.

Six seniors went out for football in the fall: Marshall Fay, Lenny Nelson, Ray Maloney, Frank Mazut, Eli Mazut, and Lloyd Anderson. In basketball five of these same seniors won the Marble Valley League championship. At the "C" tournament in Barre they defeated Williamstown in the first game and then were defeated by Barton in the second game. Ray Maloney was chosen forward on the all-tournament team.

Louise Olney was chosen D. A. R. girl and later elected State D. A. R. Girl.

Members of our class in the cast of the One-Act Play, a fantasy, "Cracked Ice," which represented Proctor High at the District Contest held in Proctor in March were Raymond Maloney, Clarence Capman, Gary Fay, and Karen Oscarson. The play tied with Middlebury for second place.

In April Louise Olney brought further honor to the class and school by being chosen Career Girl for 1951 of Burdett College, thereby winning many prizes, including a week-end in New York.

Karen Oscarson, Clarence Capman, and Louise Olney entered the prize speaking contest. Clarence won first prize; Louise second; and Karen tied for third.

Our frantic money-making endeavors bore fruit in April when we went to New York and Washington, D. C., for six days. The members of the class and their chaperons, Mr. and Mrs. Fontaine and Mr. and Mrs. Buggiani, enjoyed such varied activities as the circus, a big-league baseball game, a "splash" party, a yacht cruise, several tours, and the musical, "South Pacific." We all had so much fun that we didn't even mind the resulting emptiness in our class treasury.

Karen Oscarson, Nina Giancola, Janice Casey, Patricia May, Clarence Capman, and Gary Fay were in the all-state chorus at the Music Festival.

We have now come to the end of our high school career. We will always remember the good times we have had in Proctor High School, and we will never forget the friends we've made.

Class Degrees

PATRICIA MAY—Pat's friendliness to everyone wins her the degree E. F., Everybody's Friend.

RAYMOND MALONEY—Probably the best and hardest-working employee on Uncle Sam's payroll is a member of our class. To repay him for running the risk of flat feet, we present to Ray the degree C. M., Class Mailman.

ELSIE MONAHAN—Come rain or shine, Elsie always brightens up our day with her good humor; so we give her the degree C. M., Class Merry-maker.

ELI MAZUT—We may not have won very many football games last year, but we certainly scared the opposition. When Eli came toward them, they started shaking. As a result, we think Eli deserves the degree C. S. R., Class Steam Roller.

MARILYN NELSON—Because of Marilyn's good manners and never-failing politeness, we bestow upon her the degree of C. E. P., Class Emily Post.

FRANK MAZUT—Since Frankie is the last to let you down, we give him the degree, C. D. O. D., Class "Digby O'Dell."

KAREN OSCARSON—For the state science fair, Karen made a camera out of an oatmeal box. Now we expect her to pop up everywhere with the camera and start recording for future generations; so to Kayo we award the degree C. P., Class Photographer.

THOMAS YAKUNOVICH—Because of Thomas' way with the women, we give him the degree L. M., Ladies' Man.

MYRTLE SKJETNE—To Myrtle who always looks so neat and attractive, we present the degree C. B. D. G., Class Best-Dressed Girl.

JEANETTE POMAINVILLE—Every class should have a red-head, and we have one of the best in Jeanette. Upon Jeanette we bestow the degree O. F. R. H., Our Favorite Red-Head.

DOLORES WARD—For her numerous weekends out of town and for her love of travel we bestow upon her the degree C. G. T., Class Globe Trotter.

LENNART NELSON—Lenny's height and build really have helped P. H. S. in sports. To Lenny, therefore, goes the degree, C. A., Class Atlas.

LOUISE OLNEY—Louise is always busy and busy all ways; so we present to her the degree of A. A. G., All-Activities Girl.

ROGER NELSON—Swish! There goes Roger, in a hurry as usual. Roger, therefore, received the degree C. F., Class Flash.

LLOYD ANDERSON—Because of Lloyd's numerous trips to Rutland we dub him C. H., Class Hitch-hiker.

MYRTLE BURGESS—Myrtle brought down the house with her acting in "A Night in the Country," so we award her the degree C. A., Class Actress.

CLARENCE CAPMAN—Kelly is always comparing the real with the fantastic. To him goes the degree C. I., Class Imaginer.

JANICE CASEY—Jan is always thinking of someone special, we therefore present her with the degree C. D., Class Daydreamer.

NINA GIANCOLA—Whenever the school needs posters or the Sutherland needs a drawing, Nina gets the call; so she deserves the title C. A., Class Artist.

GARY FAY—We all quiet down when Gary calls a meeting to order. For this reason he earns the degree C. S., Class Statesman.

MARSHALL FAY—We never see Marsh on Saturday nights; so to him goes the degree C. O. T., Class Out-of-Towner.

Advice to Juniors

THERESE KALLIO—We know you are interested in the Navy; so just keep on writing and wishing, and maybe the Navy will send him home soon.

LOUIS LERTOLA—Keep up the good showing in basketball and baseball, and bring good old Proctor High even more victories.

ROSALIE COLBURN—We advise you to try out for cheerleading; so we can try to produce some acrobatic stunts.

ANN CURTIS—Because of your height, we advise you to stay on the girls' basketball team.

JOAN L'HERAULT—To help you move faster so you won't be late for so many things, we advise you to use roller skates.

MARIE GIANCOLA—Next year write twice as many letters to a certain member of the armed forces. The Post Office Department could use the money.

JANET NAVARI—Since you are so quiet in school, we suggest you spend a day with Lloyd Anderson and see how he carries on a conversation.

JEAN FREGOSI—Keep on studying, and you'll be at the head of your class at graduation.

MARIE MACEK—Keep up the good work in typing, and maybe you'll get a job typing for Mr. Silvester next year.

ELLEN BOWMAN—Since you always seem so happy, we advise you to keep up the morale of P. H. S. on gloomy days.

ELINOR JOHNSON—Our suggestion to Elinor is to keep the Student Council going.

LILLIAN KING—Because of Lillian's acting ability, we advise her to try out for the leading part in the senior play.

MARY JANE McCULLOUGH—Since two of the girls in the trio are graduating, we advise you to be on the look out for two more good voices.

GUY LOSO—We advise Guy to keep up his guitar lessons. Maybe he will be starting with Smiling Ernie in the future.

ALBERT VIGNEAU—We advise you not to dress so sharp next year, for seniors have much work to do.

ROBERT JOHNSON—Keep the dirt smoothed down around second base; for the smoother the dirt, the smoother the player!

Faculty and Students:

We, the Class of 1951 of Proctor High School, Proctor, Vermont, do on this thirteenth day of June, 1951, revoke all wills and testamentary dispositions heretofore made by us, and do declare this to be our last will and testament.

So we bequeath and devise the following:

KAREN OSCARSON leaves her cheerleading uniform. She hopes Janet Navari will fill it.

ELI MAZUT leaves his drive on the football field to anyone who dares to try it. 'Taint easy!

PAT MAY was going to leave something to the freshmen, but after deliberation she decided instead to take the freshman with her.

MARSHALL FAY leaves his ability in American history to George Loso. Enjoy it if you can, George.

ELSIE MONAHAN bequeaths her ready wit and good humor to Tippy Champine. Try it, Tippy. It's really fun.

RAY MALONEY leaves his parking places to anyone who can find them.

NINA GIANCOLA gives her faithfulness to one man to Irene Petrulenicz. Try it, Rene!

LOUISE OLNEY leaves her ability to do all things well to Marie Macek. You are doing a good job now, Marie. Keep up the good work.

ROGER NELSON leaves his walk down Powers Hill to Rodney Sedergrén—that is, the walk, not the girl.

LLOYD ANDERSON leaves his shoe-shining business to Frankie Brown.

LENNY NELSON leaves his ability in basketball to Skeels Thompson. We'll furnish the stilts, Skeels.

JANICE CASEY leaves her love for dancing to Roberta Mutti. But remember! Dancing isn't everything!

DOLORES WARD leaves her love for the Navy to Therese Kallio. Pretty uniform, isn't it, Tessie?

MARILYN NELSON leaves her ability as class treasurer to David Stevens, because he likes mathematics so well.

FRANK MAZUT deeds his long shot in basketball to Steve Stomper. Let's get on the ball, Steve.

CLARENCE CAPMAN bequeaths his singing voice to "Shoepaul" LaFrance.

MYRTLE SKJETNE leaves her love for nursing to Jean Fregosi.

JEANETTE POMAINVILLE leaves her bus ride to school every morning to Rosalie Colburn.

MYRTLE BURGESS leaves her love for staying at home nights to Charles Dankanics.

GARY FAY leaves his ability and willingness to act as class chauffeur to Louis Lertola.

TOMMY YAKUNOVICH leaves his affection for Rutland girls to "Zibby" Vigneau.

Our Miss Brooks

Class Grumble

Since it is entirely foreign to the nature of our class to grumble and since we have never been known to criticize or complain about anything, we meekly offer the following suggestions for future consideration.

We feel that earphones should be installed at every desk in study hall, so students without anything to do may listen to their favorite day-time radio programs. Study hall tables should convert into beds for easier sleeping.

The teachers should be asked to wear cleats on their shoes at all times, so that students can hear them coming.

Wheel chairs with motors should be purchased for all students who are too lazy to walk from class to class.

We suggest that every student be given a clock. Then he will always work on his own time.

Parking meters should be installed for students who have cars. The revenue received could be used toward building the new gym.

Could we have lawn chairs on the campus for seniors with nothing to do? Pretty girls could be hired to wave fans above the chairs when the temperature is high.

Seeing-eye dogs should be furnished for students who aren't awake early in the morning.

Why not have a course, "How to Become a Janitor," taught by Mr. Buggiani and giving forty points credit toward graduation.

Secluded and comfortable love seats ought to be installed for students going steady.

We would like the home economics department turned into a combination dry-cleaning establishment, barber shop, shoe-shine parlor, and beauty salon.

New hours should be set for school, with school from eight-fifteen to eight-twenty and recess from eight-twenty to three-seven. Also Christmas vacation should run from New Year's to Christmas, instead of from Christmas to New Year's.

A secret bar might be installed in the shop for thirsty boys, said bar to dispense, of course, soft drinks only.

There may be a few other things; but as we said before, we don't like to complain. Besides we like everything just the way it is—well, nearly everything—now that we're graduating.

LLOYD ANDERSON
ROGER NELSON

Class Prophecy

TIME: 1961
PLACE: Before the Senate Investigating Committee, Washington, D. C.
SETTING: The room is very crowded; and the members of the class of 1951 are all sitting before the chairman, Senator Marshall Fay, and his very capable aid, Senator Louise Olney.
PURPOSE: To find out whether the members of the class of 1951 are loyal American citizens. The following testimony has been given:

Although he at first refused to answer any questions on the grounds that it might incriminate him, the committee has found out that Lloyd Anderson is now a special agent who is terrorizing the Kremlin into saying yes for the first time in fifteen years.

Next to testify was Myrtle Burgess who said she is an actress in a play now appearing on Broadway. Her favorite role is that of a lady from Brooklyn.

Suspicion was aroused when Frank Mazut stood up to speak. It seems Frank's ship ran aground on a coral reef near a South Sea island some time ago; and Frank spent all day with binoculars, watching the island girls dance.

Another sailor, Lenny Nelson, was unable to testify, as he was in a hospital in California recovering from injuries sustained when he fell from a plank while boarding ship.

Roger Nelson has stated that his income tax is all paid. Roger has just returned home after winning the Indianapolis Speedway races for the fourth time. He says, "Practice makes perfect!"

News has reached us that Marilyn Nelson has finally received her driver's license, but after ten years the "new" Dodge is hardly recognizable.

Jeanette Pomainville has recently bought the castle. The committee tried to get her to admit an atomic bomb project, but she uses the castle building only for the storing of the new jet-engine school buses.

Karen Oscarson has just produced a new car called the "Kivistomobile." She has also tried driving it! Because of this, witnesses insist she is an enemy sabotage agent.

The committee has found that Elsie Monahan is now married. It's hard to believe, but she has two of the quietest children! They must take after their father, the newly appointed Ambassador to France.

Who is this new ambassador? Why, it's Gary Fay, or former class president! It must have been his fluency in French that won him the appointment.

Another member of the class to win an award recently is Senator Louise Olney, who for her brilliant work on the crime investigating committee was named "Miss Coconut" by the natives of an African province called "Dickyland."

Next to be questioned by the committee was Myrtle Skjetne. She has been accused of caring for a communist in her "O'Day and O'Night Hospital" in Billyville.

No one could tell the committee the whereabouts of Janice Casey until the president of the "Take Note Club," Pat May, explained that she now resides in London, England, where she is the caretaker for "Big Ben."

Speaking of the "Take Note Club," as we just were, we found upon investigating, that Pat May organized it. All the members write notes to each other daily. Just like school, we'd say.

One of our classmates, Clarence Capman, is being held as a suspicious character. It seems his book, "How to be a Scientist in Ten Big Explosions," or "Bang," is being looked over by the committee for possible military secrets.

From the scientific world we turn now to a member of the romantic world, Ray Maloney. Ray has finally achieved his life's ambition. He is the golf pro at the country club now situated in Stiles Meadow.

The committee was very much disturbed by the sailing of Dolores Ward recently. Possibly she wishes to escape questioning! She is now sailing the Seven Seas on her own yacht with her crew of L'il Guy and her husband.

While we are on the subject of water, Tommy Yakunovich is in the water field also. He has finally achieved his greatest desire. He is now in charge of the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City.

When the committee wished to investigate show business for possible spies, Nina Giancola was one of the ones questioned. It seems Nina has the feminine role in the new musical, "It's Ralph." She is very enthusiastic about the leading man!

Another former classmate in show business is Eli Mazut. He has just returned from a tour of military hospitals with his company, Pat, Incorporated, which has given comedy acts for patients.

Everyone in Washington is wondering why Senator Marshall Fay got the job as committee chairman. It seems he has just completed a survey on "Girls." Since that topic couldn't possibly have anything to do with crime, he was given the job. Typical of government, we'd say!

AN INVITATION

You and your guests are cordially invited to tour our world-famous free Marble Exhibit, which is on route 3, six miles northwest of Rutland, at Proctor, Vermont . . . America's marble center.

From our quarries in Vermont, Colorado, Missouri and Alaska, and from the ancient workings of Europe, we have assembled an unsurpassed collection of artistic and decorative marbles. Throughout the summer, guides are at your service to explain the geological specimens and brilliant mineral colorings in this "Library of Marble." On display are model shower and fireplace installations, a lovely chapel, garden furniture and occasional pieces styled for the modern home. An interesting feature of the free tour is a motion picture, "Cavalcade of Marble," which reveals the techniques of marble quarrying and processing. The Exhibit is open daily and Sundays, 9 until 5.

We wish your guests a pleasant sojourn in Vermont, an interesting visit to the Marble Exhibit.
